

About Broadway Plays And Players

NEW YORK, Sept. 15.—Kilce Brady will open her season at the Playhouse on Monday evening, September 22, in "Anna Karenina," a new American play by a new author, Henry Chapman Ford. The play deals with the young and ambitious who would make their way in the world in this great modern city. Frank Hatch and Birmingham Photo have been engaged for the supporting company. Miss Brady's husband, James Clavin, is featured in "Opportunity," nearby.

UTAH WOMAN FINDS RELIEF

Mrs. Luce Was Almost In Despair When She Began Taking Tanlac.

Mrs. Mary E. Luce, of 14 North First street, West, who has lived in Salt Lake City all her life and is highly esteemed by all who know her, in relating her experiences with Tanlac, said:

"Tanicl restored my health when I had almost despaired of ever being well again, and I certainly think it is the greatest medicine in the world. For ten or twelve years I had been in a completely run down condition. My appetite was very poor and nothing I ate seemed to do me any good. Coughs, catarrhs, and other ailments were like a plague to me, for I could never get them without terrible after-effects. I had awful headaches and spells of dizziness, when everything turned black before my eyes. I never slept well, was weak and listless all the time and life was a burden to me."

"I had sought relief in every direction, but nothing did me any good until I began taking Tanlac. This medicine helped me right from the start, and now that I have taken four bottles, I am eating cakes, pastries, or anything else I want and never have any trouble from indigestion afterwards. My headaches and dizziness have left me, and I sleep soundly at night and wake up in the morning refreshed. I feel so much stronger and better that I am about my work with interest and pleasure and the days don't seem long enough. My son, who was in a run down condition, is now taking Tanlac on account of feeling tired and weak, and it is helping him too. After getting such results myself, I can't help recommending Tanlac."

Tanicl is sold in El Paso by Cordell Drug Co., in Ft. Hancock by Ft. Hancock General Store, Co., and in Fabens by Fabens Drug Co.—Advt.

Patter And Chatter

By S. E. KIRK
Pa Wants Cheer

EVERY year about this time pa can't keep from looking glum. "Everywhere," he says, "there's crime; things are bad, there's worse to come."

"Milk is going up in price, and they'll charge us more for coal! If you buy a doughnut now you pay double for the hole."

"Here you are—you might be dead—and you're strong and healthy, too! Think of all the folks that's sick! Pa, you ought to be ashamed! You have little cause to kick, for you're neither blind nor maimed! What's the good of sitting there single such a dismal note! Things look bad everywhere. Ain't the women got the vote?"

"HERE we've made the country dry, and the time will come, you'll see. When the world will judge you by the same rules it makes for me! That's the thing that's coming next—men will have to cease to stray. And be governed by the laws that the women must obey."

"I'm not up and slammed a book on the table, and replied: 'Damn it, ma, why can't you look on the bright and cheerful side?'"

A few touches of human nature startle quarts among the closest kin. An honest man is the noblest work of God, unless he doesn't happen to be a member of your party.

STILL REGARDED WITH CONTEMPT. The people who belong to the great middle class are the only ones now whose votes are considered worth fighting for.

IT'S HARD TO THINK OF EVERYTHING. "You told me last week," the collector complained, "that if I would call today you'd pay this bill."

"I know," the delinquent replied, "but mistakes are made by the best of us. I was planning to be away, and forgot all about it."

RIDICULOUS DECEPTION. The other day a man who let his hair grow long on one side of his head, in order to stick it over his bald dome, said some sarcastic things about women who paint their lips thinking they can fool people by it.

Should Women Have The Car Seats? NOW we're picking up at a great rate. Now that the summer heat and sleep and eat periods are over, there's no excuse for not answering the roll call. And with this message weather coming we expect some snappy answers from the whole crew. One thing is pretty well settled already on this week's questions. The readers are unanimously in favor of giving up their seats to old women.

Hogwallow Locals BY DUNK HOTTS. Here are some replies to the "Patter and Chatter" column.

Page 10.—Terrible Al, you're the kind who sleeps in the car because you can't bear to see a woman stand. Personally I think you're either dithered or have lost the key to the cellar.

Lady Bug.—The men I see in the car look as though they needed a seat a lot worse than I do.

Common Sense Anne.—I agree with Terrible Al. But I do think a man should give his seat to an aged woman, and I've seen lots of them standing.

Kathryn.—Only an old woman or a man with a baby should be given a seat.

Maikel the Strong.—Men are so good natured and sympathetic that, as they can't bear to see a woman stand, they prop the seats up with their eyes.

Apaches.—If it's an old woman or a man with a baby, yes, but if it's a painted doll, no.

J. M. Dollar.—Yes, that's how I got my sweetheart.

Sir Walt.—Only once I remember not giving up my seat, and that was when I entered the car and before I could get up, started making remarks.

Viney.—I always do, when we get to where I get off.

Maikel D.—It's disgusting to see big able-bodied men holding down seats in a car.

G. H. R.—If she was fair, with nice bobbed hair, I would. But if she was skinny, with feet like Frank Timony, I wouldn't.

John Bell.—Certainly. Any man of breeding would not think of keeping his seat. In the London street cars a woman standing is a rare sight.

Genie.—Just shame them and they'll act like men. One day I gave my seat to an old woman and four men got up. Try it and see how it works. You can always be sure of getting your seat back.

Little Nook.—Offered mine and was refused. Let 'em stand. An elderly woman can have mine any time, however.

Old Man.—I have ridden the El Paso street cars for years and am proud to say whenever a woman gets on a car and there are no vacant seats, there is always a real man present, so it is decidedly the exception to see a woman standing in our cars. Can Lee Angeles say as much?

A Soldier.—I've been on street cars at countless times when all the seats were taken and I have seen soldiers and civilians alike sit like dummies when there were elderly women standing. I've never hesitated in proffering my seat to any woman who happened to be unlucky enough to get on a car when all the seats were taken and I say, like Celia, that any gentleman will do the same.

HOROSCOPE

SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 15, 1920.

ASTROLOGERS read this as an unfortunate day since Uranus, Jupiter and Mars are all in malignant aspect.

It is a rule under which the judgment is likely to be distorted so that prejudice dominates.

Uranus is in a place that the seers believe encourages slander, back-biting and double-dealing. Calumnies, evil gossip and malicious report are bound to find hospitable reception while this government of the stars prevails.

There is a menacing sign today for aviation. Danger of accident is said to increase during this aspect.

One of the sinister effects of the adverse direction of the planet Uranus is held to be a disturbance of the subconscious mind. Women more easily than men are upset by the malign influences.

Warning is given that among persons of artistic temperament this rule may cause intense excitement that produces in reaction great discouragement and depression.

A slight drop in certain lines of business activity seems to be suggested, but it will not continue for any length of time.

Mars again reminds the world that peace has not been attained and that humanity is continuing to pay the toll that war exacts. New diplomatic complications are forecast.

Craftiness may be developed in many types of mind during the rule of the stars which will prevail in a hunting trip.

Explosions and accidents due to fire may be very numerous during the coming week.

Increase in the number of girls born this year will be so great as to awaken the anxiety of Malthusian philosophers in this country as well as abroad.

The seers forecast in regard to the future of the woman movement, the growth of cooperation and close organization which will cause men to compete anxiously with the new leaders of the world.

Persons whose birthdate it is should be rather cautious in financial matters during the coming year. Risks of all sorts may be un lucky.

Children born on this day may be rash and high strung. They are likely to be well endowed with brains which they can use to great advantage. They should be taught not to be rolling stones when they are grown.—Copyright, 1920, by the McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

is very economical, pound for pound it makes more hot cakes than any of the average pancake flours

PANTEX PANCAKE FLOUR

Hot Cakes!

—mean a delightful treat and a wholesome meal when they're Pantex hot cakes.

Everything in Pantex is good and pure and wholesome—the best of flours, wheat, rice, and corn—pure phosphate baking powder that makes the cakes light and fluffy—salt from the best producer in the country—and because milk makes hot cakes tender and nourishing and corn sugar makes them appetizingly brown—Pantex contains twice as much of these costly ingredients.

If you had all these good things handy and knew just the right proportion in which they should be mixed, you could make as good hot cakes as Pantex—but Pantex saves you all this trouble.

If it were possible to produce a more perfect hot cake flour than Pantex we would do it because only the highest quality products bear the Gambrell name and trademark. Every package carries our unqualified money-back guarantee.
